

COVER STORY

p.10

34

BATTLEFIELD LEADER

Patton's Finest Hour

The Battle of the Bulge gave America's renowned World War II combat general the opportunity to demonstrate his genius for war. By Carlo D'Este

FEATURES

28

10 Questions

An interview with Colonel William Davis (USMC, Ret.), the director of the MacArthur Memorial.

30

HISTORY'S MYSTERIES

Miracle on the Vistula, 1920

Against all odds, Poland stopped the surging Red Army at Warsaw's gates, miraculously saving Europe from Russia's Bolshevik Revolution. By Jacek Lubecki

42

The Union at Risk

The celebrated Civil War command team of Lincoln and Grant nearly lost the war in 1864. By Michael D. Pearlman

INTERACTIVE

51

COMBAT!

German Tankers at Kursk, 1943

Choose the correct tactical plan as a German panzer crew faces the Red Army.

54

YOU COMMAND

10th Mountain Division in Italy, 1945

Test your tactical decision-making skills as American infantrymen battle rugged terrain and fierce German resistance during World War II.

60

YOU COMMAND SOLUTION

Pegasus Bridge, June 6, 1944

Historical outcome and winning Reader Solutions to CDG #33, July 2009 issue.

64

WHAT NEXT, GENERAL?

March to Baghdad: Tallil Airbase, 2003

Armchair General challenges YOU to step into the boots of an American infantry commander during the first major battle of Operation Iraqi Freedom. By Pat Proctor

DEPARTMENTS

4

EDITOR'S LETTER

6

MAILBAG

8

CRISIS WATCH

Where are the Strategists?

Being superb operators isn't enough. Americans need to be great strategists, too.

By Ralph Peters

10

DISPATCHES

Real heroes, report from Iraq, Washington's "name game," turning-point events in history, and much more!

16

FORGOTTEN HISTORY

The Sea Peoples: Bronze Age Scourge

In the 12th century B.C., a migrating horde launched a two-pronged attack against the era's richest prize, Egypt.

18

LEGENDARY COMBAT UNITS

The Texas Rangers

Today's renowned law enforcement agency saw plenty of combat during its early decades.

20

GREAT WARRIORS

Medieval Knights

Armored warriors dominated European warfare in the Age of Chivalry.

22

BADGES OF HONOR

Czarist Glory

Imperial Russia's Order of St. George was the empire's highest military decoration.

p.30

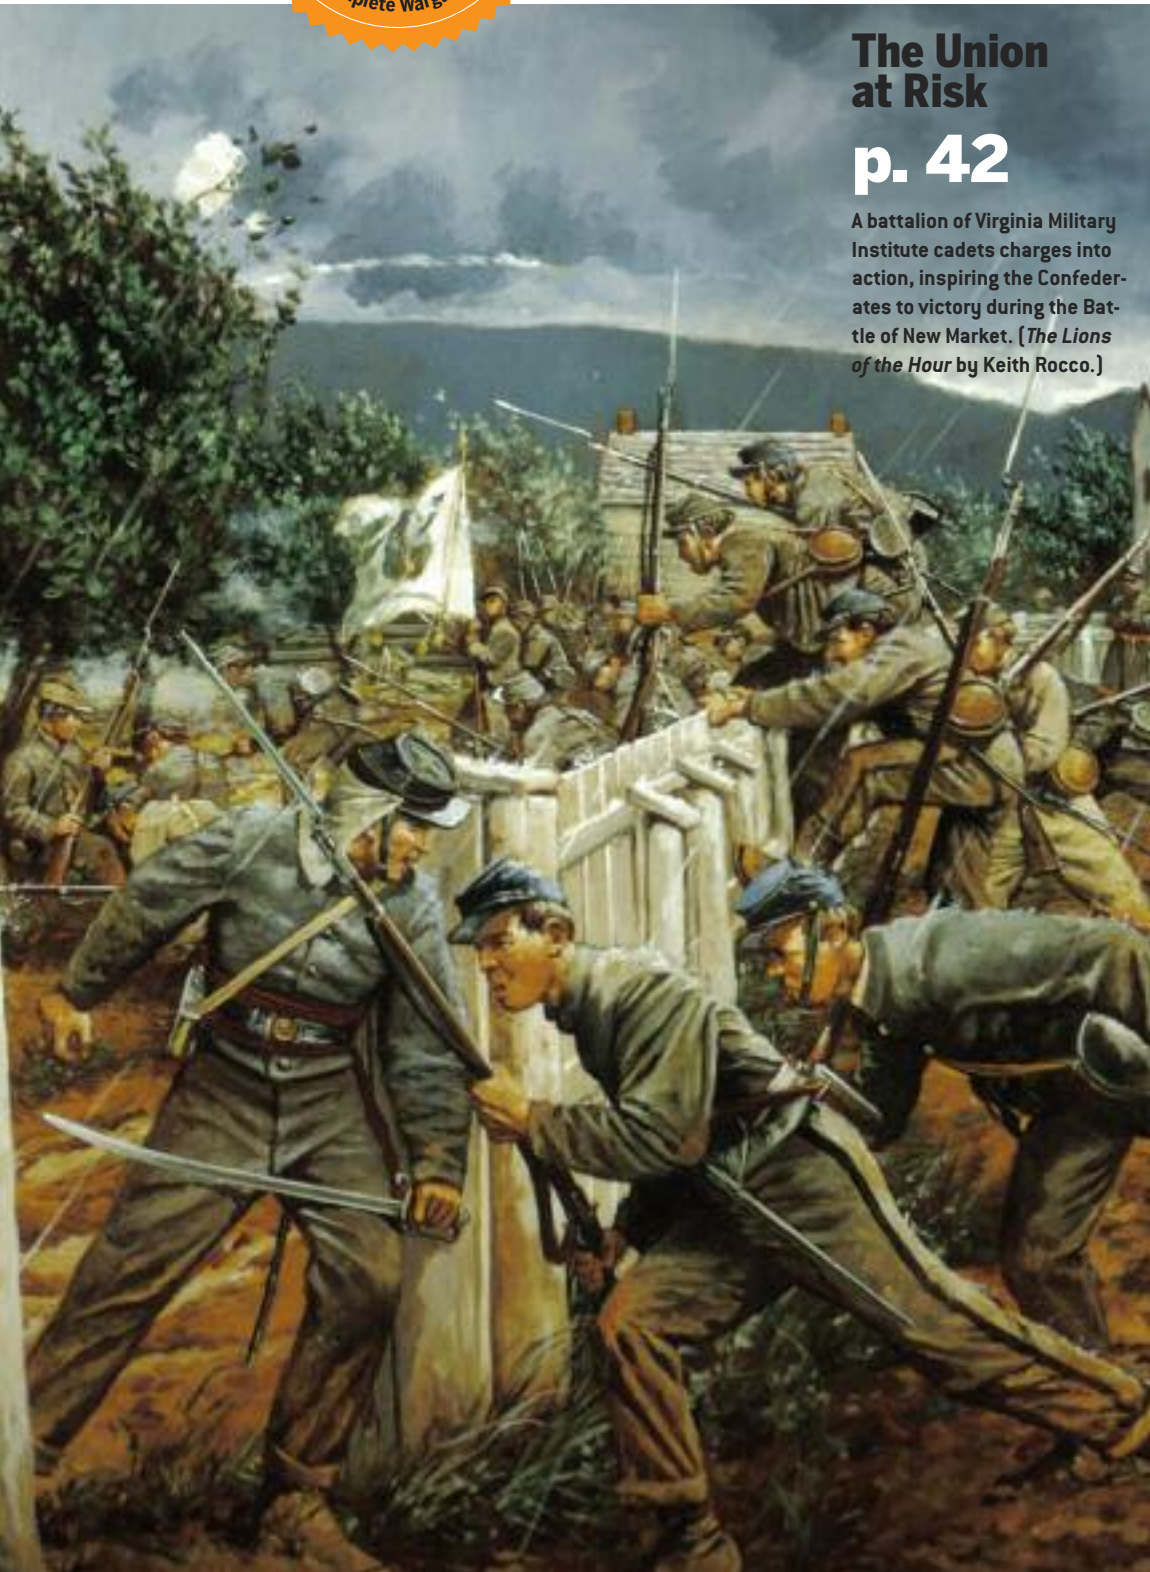

p.54

p.74

ProSIM, a quality company known for its ultra-authentic wargames, developed March to Baghdad, Episode 1: Decision at Tallil Air Base exclusively for Armchair General. Read the article on p. 64 and play the exciting game at armchairgeneral.com/MarchToBaghdad.

The Union at Risk

p. 42

A battalion of Virginia Military Institute cadets charges into action, inspiring the Confederates to victory during the Battle of New Market. (The Lions of the Hour by Keith Rocco.)

DEPARTMENTS

24 HARD CHOICES

Churchill, Alone

Britain's beleaguered prime minister faced seemingly insurmountable odds in 1940.

26 SPY WARS

America's Traitor Spies

Walker, Ames and Hanssen sold U.S. secrets to the USSR and Russia.

80 LEADER

Winston S. Churchill: The Lion's Roar

REVIEWS

73 GAME BUZZ

The scoop on some of today's hottest titles!

74 VIDEO GAME REVIEW

Battlestations: Pacific and Red Faction: Guerrilla

75 WARGAME REVIEW

Takeda III and Empire: Total War

76 BOOKSHELF

These new must-read books cover a wide range of military history topics.

78 DVD LIBRARY

Fire Support

Outstanding supporting actors often steal the show in war films.

ON THE COVER

General Patton

BACKGROUND: 212TH TANK BATTALION; PATTON: GENERAL GEORGE PATTON MUSEUM/AWEIDER HISTORY GROUP ARCHIVES; COLORIZED BY ZACHARY BATHON

